Men On Men - Starts April 22nd

The Men on Men course is a great way of meeting new people and getting some valuable information in a supportive non-threatening environment. The topics covered include: HIV/AIDS and STIs, self-esteem, safer sex and drug use, social expectations of men and how this can impact on the choices we make, identity formation, relationships, coming out (or staying in), homophobia, pride and the gay scene, the community and the differences between them.

What do Elton John & David Furnish,
Anthony Callea & Tim Campbell,
Dolce & Gabana and Seigfried & Roy have in common?

They have all had success in relationships and love other men.

Loving Our Way - Starts May 21st

For gay men in relationships or for those who wish to be in one. This course runs for one night a week for 6 weeks. Its main objective is to discuss gay men's relationships and challenge our perceptions of them. You will also get some great tips on how to look for a partner, how to maintain a healthy relationship and also how to identify when your relationship is not fulfilling your needs. We also generate discussion how HIV/AIDS can impact on gay men's relationships.

What do Freddie Mercury, Rupert Everett
Neil Patrick Harris, Carson Kresley and
Cole Porter have in common?

They all like sex with men and were good at it.

Nitty Gritties - Starts July 9th

An all time favourite, if you want the most out of your sex life, this is the course for you! This five week course covers all the ins and outs of sex between men. Topics covered include: male anatomy and physiology, sexual techniques, sexual communication and negotiation, HIV/AIDS and STIs, sexual health maintenance, safer sex and drug use, multiple orgasms, orgasm control, intimacy and massage. Each evening has a social component.
